PASTORAL CARE CHEF OF THE MONTH: Judy Bauer

1. Server - anyone who serves at the altar. See A Manual for Acolytes, by G. Michno, chapter 9, for the basic instructions and duties of the server.
2. Acolyte - a server who carries a torch or a candle in processions and at other times during the liturgy. The term is also commonly interchanged with server. See Manual, chapter 11, for instructions.
3. Crucifer - a server who bears the cross in processions and at other times during the liturgy. See Manual, chapter 12, for instructions. In this parish, the Crucifer also distributes alms basins to the ushers and rings the sanctus bell.
4. Thurifer - the server whose duty it is to handle the thurible and boat. See Manual, chapter 13 for instructions.
5. Subdeacon - a lay person who assists the deacon and celebrant and in this parish carries the Gospel in procession; aids the Deacon or Celebrant in setting the altar and performing ablutions; and turns pages for the Celebrant. During ablutions, the Subdeacon does not pour wine on the Celebrant's fingers (see Manual, pp. 40-41).
6. Eucharistic Minister - a server who has been licensed by the diocese to aid the Celebrant in distributing the Sacrament. Typically, the subdeacon and crucifer will serve as Eucharistic Ministers.
7. Gospeler - one who reads the Gospel. This is always the Deacon when one is present. Else, the Celebrant reads.
